We all know about Din Tai Fung which has been much celebrated since the first restaurant was opened in China in the 1950s. And the food at the restaurant need no more explanation, as most of us surely have taste the delectable dishes before. But now, we would like to inform you about Din Tai Fung new dishes, which are as good as (if not better) than their famous dishes.

No restaurant is immune from over-hyping, but in the case of Din Tai Fung its hard not to heap praise on it. The must-try is of course Din Tai Fungs famous Xiao Long Bao (the steamed dumplings that are filled with a gulp of broth inside and enjoyed with vinegar and ginger). There is also a new dish on the menu, Xiao Long Bao Opor. The skin is paper thin, but it never arrives at your table punctured. Have it plain or dip it in the ginger, soy/vinegar sauce mixture. Either way, upon that first bite youll experience an explosion of soup bursting into your mouth, and its awesome. If you are a first-timer and arent quite sure how to handle the dumplings, the placemat includes some handy instructions that will take you through the process step by step. And if thats not enough, a waiter will happily guide you through it.

As delicious as they are, dont fill up on the steamed dumplings, because there are plenty of other delicious dishes you will want to experience. These include Doumiao with Garlic, Beef Tenderloin with Black Pepper Sauce and Egg and Shrimp Fried Rice, which is really about the best fried rice I have ever tasted. I just couldnt stop raving about it while eating.

One dish that I wont be forgetting is a relatively new addition to the menu, Golden Lava. It is so delicious that it will make you speechless, with its combination of salted egg yolk and butter that just melts in your mouth. For drinks, there is of course the tea, but for something a little different try the Jungle Marquise or Mango Fantasy.

Come and experience the legend of Din Tai Fung with your family or friends. Its a great place to hang out, with a warm and friendly atmosphere, and of course the food cant be beat. So what are you waiting for? Find out why Din Tai Fung is everybodys favourite restaurant. ☺
